

Acts chap 26 – Paul on trial

By the time we get to Acts 26 Paul has already been on trial before _____.

In the picture on the left you can see now that he is on trial before two more men. Listen to the message carefully today to find out who! – Then write them below:

_____ and

Paul, you are

In v23 we see that Paul was very faithful in telling all of these men about how the Old Testament shows that _____ would _____ but be the first to _____. When Paul had stopped speaking one man said _____

In v25 Paul says that all he has told them are _____ of _____ & _____

The second man was a terrible sinner. He pretended that his _____ was his _____. We might think that is a really bad thing --- but we do some bad things too, don't we? Paul wanted all these men who tried to judge him to realise that one day God was going to _____ them! He wanted all of them to _____ of their sins & become a _____. Paul knew that was a wonderful thing to happen to anyone! In v18 he told them it was like a change from _____ into _____ !

Listen carefully today! Which of these three responses goes with which of the three men? Can you fill in the blanks?

Not yet: _____ / Not interested: _____ / Not persuaded: _____

I hope you can see how really important it is to become a real Christian?

Well done for completing this sheet ! 🧡
